I'm Larry Brown, owner of Lion's Den Tactical, LLC. I feel that it is important that we exercise our 2nd amendment right and learn how to do it safely. If you are new to firearms, have a firearm but want to learn more, or have kids and want to be safe with them and have them learn, I am here to help. I am a patient instructor who will make sure the environment is safe for learners of all ages. While firearms are a serious matter, I am committed to an educational environment that is interactive and fun.

I am a member of USCCA, the Bass Reeves Gun Club (BRGC), and the National African American Gun Association (NAAGA). I have been a member of BRGC since 2017 and a certified instructor since August of 2020. I am passionate about teaching others and making sure we have safe firearms owners in the world.
